Applications

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents will be given priority.

SFU is an equity employer and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, Indigenous Peoples, people of all sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the university.

SFU respectfully acknowledges the x̱m̱əθḵ̓əy̱əm (Musqueam), Sḵw̱x̱w̱ú7mesh Úx̱wumixw (Squamish), səliłwətaʔṯ (Tseil-Waututh), ǵícəy̱ (Katzie), ḵ̓iḵ̓əłəm (Kwkwetlem), Qayqayt, Kwantlen, Semiahmoo and Tsawwassen peoples on whose unceded traditional territories our three campuses reside. By recognizing the unceded traditional Coast Salish territories, we aspire to create a space for reconciliation through dialogue and decolonizing practices.

Under the authority of the University Act, personal information that is required by the University for academic appointment competitions will be collected. For further details see the Collection Notice below.

Collection Notice

The information submitted with your application is collected under the authority of the University Act (R.S.B.C. 1996, c.468, s. 27(4)(a)), applicable federal and provincial employment regulations and requirements, the University's academic and non-academic employment policies, and applicable collective agreements. The information is related directly to and needed by the University to initiate the employment application process. It will be used to process applications for fellowship appointments, assess an applicant's qualifications, determine if a recommendation to appoint an applicant has the demonstrated support of the department and make a final appointment decision. The information collected may be disclosed to some or all of the following groups during the evaluation of applications: Steering Committee members, department Chairs and Directors, department committee members, and administrative staff. A portion of the academic and professional backgrounds of appointed fellows will be shared with all faculty members and students.

If you have any questions about the collection, use and disclosure of this information please contact the Associate Dean, Research, Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences, Simon Fraser University, Burnaby, BC V5A 1S6. Email shadbolt_fellows@sfu.ca
