3. Reports from committees

- i. DGSC – Jenn Sunday, Emily Darling
 - committee assessment forms for annual reports being redone to include a wider array of options for assessors as well as a timeline form for students and supervisors
 - guideline document introduced by Margo Moore ('A guide to the graduate program') in order to reduce conflict and smooth transition for new grad students
 - Faculty of Education wanting to introduce a Masters of Science Educator but concerns within the department about the details of the program
- ii. GSS – Thomas Unsoeld
 - details about movement of GSS to the Halpern Centre. No apparent funding increases for individual students
 - new student orientation ideas (which our department already does)
 - new grant application forms
- iii. TSSU – Brian LaBore
 - discussion about G20 statements
 - discussion of donation issues
 - issues of non-reporting of workload reviews in the Biology departments to the Union – individuals can look at the back of

TUGs for some of the triggers, the rest should be in the logbooks
 - discussions about workload reviews and possibly a survey passed around in an attempt to internally resolve the situation

- iv. Faculty Mole – Samineh Deheshi
 - discussion of student/supervisor forms
 - recruitment of quality students discussed email Stephen_price@sfu.ca with ideas
 - Dr Christine Bishop voted in as adjunct professor
 - external examiners and their importance discussed, talked about using partnership funds and other ways of bringing in external examiners

- v. DSC – Samantha Franks, Rian Dickson
 - graduate fellowships not sent out yet
 - new award for people with NSERC and CIHR (apparently to encourage grad students to come to SFU)
 - New awards to support staff and faculty introduced

- 3. DSC scholarship discussion – Reforming the DSC system
 - Rian explained the details of the ranking system, primarily for NSERC and GFs
 - instructions for GFs were discussed, especially with concern to requirements
 - more guidelines for the rankings were proposed to increase the consistency between committee members
 - Ron Ydenberg previously said he'd be willing to come to the caucus meeting to discuss scholarship issues
