HEAD BACK EAST, TO THE RIGHT OF THE WEST MALL YOU’LL FIND THE LORNE DAVIES COMPLEX
Enter the Lorne Davies Complex to see a birds-eye-view of the swimming pool and dive tank. The Complex also has three gyms, racquetball and squash courts, a fitness centre, weight rooms, saunas, and a climbing wall.

ON THE SOUTH SIDE OF THE LORNE DAVIES COMPLEX, YOU’LL FIND THE TERRY FOX FIELD.
Here you will see the SFU Stadium which features covered seats, broadcast & media facilities, VIP/sponsor box, and coaches’ booths all connected with an integrated sound system. The stadium allows SFU to showcase all field sports including soccer, track & field and the NCAA division football team.

HEAD UP THE STAIRS AND EXIT THE MAGGIE BENSTON CENTRE. TURN RIGHT. AND PROCEED ALONG THE CORRIDOR.
Follow the corridor and to your right, just past Convocation Mall, you’ll find the new Student Union Building (SUB). Funded by students for students, the SUB houses meeting rooms, offices and spaces for SFU clubs and groups. Students can enjoy such areas as a nap room (located on the 1000 level), study spaces, games lounge (located on the 2000 level), dance and music studios, community kitchen and large ballroom on the top floor. The SUB was designed to be a LEED Gold green building standard.

CAN YOU FIND THE SFU LETTERS?
Keep your eye out for some large SFU letters. These letters are moved around different parts of campus and make for the perfect photo spot wherever they are!

FROM THE STADIUM, WALK PAST THE TRANSPORTATION CENTRE TO GET BACK TO CONVOCATION MALL.
To the right of the Convocation Mall, across from the library you’ll find the Maggie Benston Centre. To the right of the entrance you’ll find Student Central, where students learn about resources, admissions and talk to academic advisors. Head down one floor to stop by the SFU Book Store and Spirit Shop. Here you’ll find SFU swag and giftware.

Welcome to Convocation Mall where alumni cross the stage during their convocation ceremony. SFU also holds many student events here including Welcome Day and Clubs Day.

Next to Convocation Mall, you’ll find the library. In addition to books and journals, the W.A.C Bennett Library is home to academic and research support services, study rooms, and online resources. To the right of the entrance is the new Media and Maker Commons which opened in 2020. This collaborative, hands-on learning space allows students to use such tools as 3D printers, laser cutters, embroidery machines, VR studios, soldering equipment, AV editing studios and more.

From the library, head east and walk through Freedom Square and then up the stairs towards the AQ.

Up ahead are the AQ Gardens where you’ll first see the stunning Reflection Pond, home to SFU’s foundation stone (a 6-ton piece of jade) and koi fish. On sunny days you’ll find students lounging outside around the gardens. Cross the pond to see some outdoor artwork. Don’t forget to say hi to Terry Fox – a statue of the remarkable SFU student can be found next to the path.

From the library, head east and walk through Freedom Square and then up the stairs towards the AQ.

Continue through the West Mall and head outside. Keeping going until you are past the West Parkade.

Just past the West Parkade you will find Residence and Housing. Here you will find several new developments including the East and West residence towers and the new state-of-the-art Dining Commons. Open 24/7, the Dining Commons includes 28,000 sq ft of sustainable dining space and serves more dining options than ever.

Follow the path to the other side of the AQ.

After leaving the gardens, look to your right to find the Trottier Observatory. Look at the star charts and the Equatorial Sundial. If you’re on campus at night time, you can witness a colourful light display.

Across from the observatory you’ll find Strand Hall, which is home to administrative offices including the Office of the President and the Alumni Relations Office.

With the library on your right, proceed down the covered walkway into the West Mall Centre. The West Mall Centre is home to lecture halls, study spaces, offices and the Beedie School of Business. As you enter, you will find SFU’s first Starbucks. Then moving along the hallway, downstairs to the right is Tim Hortons offering terrific views from the outdoor patio.
