Position Title: Head Instructor – Leadership

Position & Camp Summary
Simon Fraser University Summer Camp Head Instructors are responsible for providing a safe and fun environment for campers and leading by example when working with other staff and volunteers. Head Instructors develop and implement age appropriate activity plans for their camps and provide leadership for campers, Instructors, and Volunteers. The successful candidate will be an energetic, active, and responsible Camp leader who works well in a team. Leadership Camp is a full day, one week camp for campers 13-17 years. There are four progressive levels of leadership training, designed for teens wanting to develop their leadership skills in a youth camp setting. Instruction from our professional educators focuses on leadership knowledge, skill acquisition, utilizing theoretical approaches and practical approaches. These courses review the necessary skills desired for Volunteer, Instructor, and Head Instructor positions. Completion is highly recommended before applying for employment and volunteer positions at SFU camps. Instructors should be flexible in their areas of placement as positions may change throughout the summer.
