Position Title: Head Instructor – Computer Camp (2 positions)

Position & Camp Summary
Simon Fraser University Summer Camp Head Instructors are responsible for providing a safe and fun environment for campers and leading by example when working with other staff and volunteers. Head Instructors develop and implement age appropriate activity plans for their camps and provide leadership for campers, instructors, and volunteers. The successful candidate will be an energetic, active, and responsible camp leader who works well in a team. Computer Camp is a full day, two week camp. There are three groups of campers: 7-9 years, 10-11 years, and 12-14 years. All groups spend equal time with each Head Instructor. The camps’ focus is on the areas of graphics, website design, programming, animation, and gaming. Various small projects and large projects will take place over the camp duration. Each day consists of four hours of computer instruction and approximately two hours of recreation time, which include activities like co-operative games, sports, and swimming. Each camper will have their own computer and full access to the internet and Adobe Creative Suite to complete projects. Head Instructors should be knowledgeable with all the programs and are in charge of creating in-depth lesson plans that highlight each focus area of the camp.
