Position Title: Head Instructor – Glee & Dance Camps

Position & Camp Summary
Simon Fraser University Summer Camp Head Instructors are responsible for providing a safe and fun environment for campers and leading by example when working with other staff and volunteers. Head Instructors develop and implement age appropriate activity plans for their camps and provide leadership for campers, instructors, and volunteers. The successful candidate will be an energetic, active, and responsible camp leader who works well in a team. Glee and Dance Camps are full day, two week camps for children of all levels of experience, aged 8-12 years. The camps are based on the popular TV shows of the same names. Glee camp offers singing, dancing, choreography, and musical theatre. Glee campers learn melodies, harmonies, choreography, stage management, and prop and costume design. Dance campers will experience a range of dance styles such as ballet, jazz, hip-hop, lyrical, musical theatre, and contemporary. Dance camp focuses on the fundamentals of dance technique, choreography, stage management, and prop and costume design. Both camps include a final production on the last day of the camp.
