SFU Camps
Head Instructor - Mountain Madness

Position Title: Head Instructor – Mountain Madness

Position & Camp Summary
Simon Fraser University Summer Camp Head Instructors are responsible for providing a safe and fun environment for campers and leading by example when working with other staff and volunteers. Head Instructors develop and implement age appropriate activity plans for their camps and provide leadership for campers, instructors, and volunteers. The successful candidate will be an energetic, active, and responsible camp leader who works well in a team. Mountain Madness is a full day, one week camp for children 8-11 years. Time will be spent on the trails at SFU, and in the classroom and recreation facilities on campus. This is an active and diverse camp that includes activities such as hiking, orienteering, co-operative camp games, and a field trip to a pre-determined location. The camp’s focus is to be able to teach children skills and techniques that may be useful outdoors.

Duties and Responsibilities
