Position Title: Instructor – Leadership & Outdoor Camps

Position & Camp Summary
Simon Fraser University Summer Camp Instructors are responsible for providing a safe, fun environment for campers and leading by example when working with other staff and volunteers. The successful candidate will be an energetic, active, and responsible camp instructor who works well in a team. This position is responsible for assisting in the operation two different camps, Leadership and Outdoor camps. Leadership Camp is a full day, one week camp for campers 13-17 years. There are five progressive levels of leadership training, designed for teens wanting to develop their leadership skills in a youth camp setting. Instruction from our professional educators focuses on leadership knowledge, skill acquisition, utilizing theoretical approaches and practical approaches. These courses review the necessary skills desired for Volunteer, Instructor, and Head Instructor positions. Outdoor camps are full day, one week camps, for children 11-14 years. Activities will include various field trips each day, where campers may participate in activities such as sailing, dragon boating, kayaking, rock climbing, ropes courses, and hiking.
