Head Instructor – Clan Sports (Post-Camp Care & Lunch Supervisor)

Position & Camp Summary:
Simon Fraser University Camp Head Instructors are responsible for providing a safe, fun, and educational experience for campers aged 5-17. Head Instructors develop and implement age-appropriate lessons and activities for their camp. They are a role model for younger campers and lead by example, by providing mentorship to fellow staff and volunteers. Clan Sports is a half-day, afternoon camp (12:30-3:30 PM) for campers aged 6-10. The Head Instructor of Clan Sports plans and organizes activities, recreational games, and sports activities. Games can be conventional such as basketball, soccer, and floor hockey, or unconventional such as dodgeball. The structure of the camp includes time spent around the many amazing recreational facilities around the SFU campus. Each week, campers will have one hour of pool time. The Head Instructor of Clan Sports is also responsible for supervising campers of all ages during lunch time (11:30-12:30 PM) and Post Camp Care (3:30 PM-6:00 PM). Post-Camp Care is offered to campers of all ages during lunch time: Monday to Friday, 10 AM-12:30 PM and Post Camp Care (3:30 PM-6:00 PM). Post-Camp Care is offered to campers between 3:30 – 5:30 PM and is intended for campers whose parents are unable to pick up their child at the usual sign out time of 3:30. Post Care is composed of crafts, games, and quiet corners for campers to read books to help keep them entertained after camps.
