Centre for the Comparative Study of Muslim Societies and Cultures

Spring Colloquium Series, 2013

January 24, 6-7pm: Dr. Amir Mirfakhraie (Sociology, Kwantlan Polytechnic), “Constructions of Phobias, Fractured Selves, Stigmatized Selves, and the Ideal Citizen in Iranian School Textbooks,” Room 7000, SFU Harbour Centre, 515 West Hastings, Vancouver.

February 14, 6-7pm: Dr. Hossein Houshmand (CCSMSC, SFU), “Islam and Liberalism: Where the Conflict Really Lies?” Room 7000, SFU Harbour Centre.

February 28, 5:30-6:30pm: Dr. Sedi Minachi (CCSMSC, SFU), “The Conflict between Clericalism and Secularism in Iran since the 19th Century from the Perspective of Gender Relations,” Room 7000, SFU Harbour Centre.

March 7, 6-7pm: Dr. Amyn Sajoo (CCSMSC, SFU), “Minority Citizenship and the Shari’a: Lessons from the Arab Spring,” Room 7000, SFU Harbour Centre.

March 14, 6-7pm: Eva Sajoo (CCSMSC, SFU), “Religion and Development: Muslim Feminist Approaches,” Room 7000, SFU Harbour Centre.

Mar 20, 12-1 pm: Dr. Parin Dossa (Anthropology, SFU) “Acknowledging the Women of Afghanistan: Social Suffering and Remaking of Life” Room AQ 6229, Burnaby Campus. Note that this lecture only is on SFU Burnaby campus.

March 28, 6-7pm: Dr. Maya Yazigi, (CCSMSC, SFU), ”The Classical Arabo-Islamic Genealogical Tradition and the Evidence for Gender: Preliminary Conclusions,” Room 1520, SFU Harbour Centre.

For further information, see www.sfu.ca/ccsmsc.