

Simon Fraser University Chancellor's Distinguished Service Award Call for Nominations 2012

The University seeks nominations for the Chancellor's Distinguished Service award, which is presented early each year at the annual SFU Awards dinner.

This award is given annually to individuals, normally external to the University, on the basis of contributions to British Columbia in areas that are of major interest to the University, or that are directly associated with the University.

If you know of a suitable candidate for this award, please send the nomination, with appropriate supporting documentation, by the deadline of September 12, 2011, to:

Dr Kate Ross
Registrar & Executive Director, Student Enrollment
Email: bedmunds@sfu.ca
Fax: 778.782.5732

Nominations will be considered by the Senate Committee on University Honours. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact Kate Ross at 778.782.3108.
