Thesis / Project / Dissertation Topic Declaration Form
School of Communication, SFU

This form must be submitted by all students before the end of the second term of their studies. The title and/or description can be changed by resubmitting the form.

The Thesis Topic Declaration serves two purposes:
1) To engage student and supervisory committee in identifying a thesis topic
2) To allow the school to communicate areas of research via web and other media

____________________________________________________  ________________
Student Name  Student

Topic Title (100 character limit)

__________________________

Topic Description (300 character limit):

By signing below, all parties permit the information here included to be used in School of Communication informational and promotional materials, including the school website.

All signatures must be handwritten EXCEPT for non-SFU supervisors, whose endorsement may be sent via email and attached to this form.

____________________________________________________  __________
Student Signature  Date

____________________________________________________  __________  __________
Senior Supervisor Name  Signature  Date

____________________________________________________  __________  __________
Committee Member Name  Signature  Date

____________________________________________________

Failure to submit this form by the deadline specified in the 'CMNS Criteria for Satisfactory Progress’ results in an automatic unsatisfactory progress report with all associated consequences.

Thesis Topic Declaration Form, CMNS SFU (February 2011)