2. Age amount

If you will be 65 or older on December 31, 2019 and your net income from all sources will be $35,660 or less, enter $4,791. If your net income for the year will be between $35,660 and $67,600 and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1BC-WS, Worksheet for the 2019 British Columbia Personal Tax Credits Return, and fill in the appropriate section.

3. Pension income amount

If you will receive regular pension payments from a pension plan or fund (excluding Canada Pension Plan, Quebec Pension Plan, Old Age Security, or Guaranteed Income Supplement payments), enter $1,000, or your estimated annual pension income, whichever is less.

4. Tuition (full time and part time)

If you are a student enrolled at a university, college, or educational institution certified by Employment and Social Development Canada, and you will pay more than $100 per institution in tuition fees, complete this section. If you are enrolled full time or part time, enter the total of the tuition fees you will pay.

5. Disability amount

If you will claim the disability amount on your income tax return by using Form T2201, Disability Tax Credit Certificate, enter $8,012.

6. Spouse or common-law partner amount

If you are supporting your spouse or common-law partner who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be $915 or less, enter $9,147. If his or her net income for the year will be between $915 and $10,062, and you want to calculate a partial claim, get Form TD1BC-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

7. Amount for an eligible dependant

If you do not have a spouse or common-law partner and you support a dependent relative who lives with you and whose net income for the year will be less than $20,494, and you want to calculate a claim, get Form TD1BC-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

8. British Columbia caregiver amount

You may be supporting an infirm spouse or common-law partner, or an infirm eligible dependant (age 18 or older) who is either your or your spouse's or common-law partner's:

- child or grandchild
- parent, grandparent, brother, sister, uncle, aunt, niece or nephew who resided in Canada

If this is your situation and the infirm person's net income for the year will be less than $20,494, and you want to calculate a claim, get Form TD1BC-WS and fill in the appropriate section.

9. Amounts transferred from your spouse or common-law partner

If your spouse or common-law partner will not use all of his or her age amount, pension income amount, tuition amount, or disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

10. Amounts transferred from a dependant

If your dependant will not use all of his or her disability amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount. If your or your spouse's or common-law partner's dependent child or grandchild will not use all of his or her tuition amount on his or her income tax return, enter the unused amount.

11. TOTAL CLAIM AMOUNT

Add lines 1 to 10.
Your employer or payer will use this amount to determine the amount of your provincial tax deductions.
Filling out Form TD1BC

Fill out this form only if you are an employee working in British Columbia or a pensioner residing in British Columbia and any of the following apply:

- you have a new employer or payer and you will receive salary, wages, commissions, pensions, employment insurance benefits, or any other remuneration
- you want to change amounts you previously claimed (for example, the number of your eligible dependants has changed)
- you want to increase the amount of tax deducted at source

Sign and date it, and give it to your employer or payer.

If you do not fill out Form TD1BC, your employer or payer will deduct taxes after allowing the basic personal amount only.

More than one employer or payer at the same time

If you have more than one employer or payer at the same time and you have already claimed personal tax credit amounts on another Form TD1BC for 2019, you cannot claim them again. If your total income from all sources will be more than the personal tax credits you claimed on another Form TD1BC, check this box, enter "0" on line 11 and do not fill in lines 2 to 10.

Total income less than total claim amount

Check this box if your total income for the year from all employers and payers will be less than your total claim amount on line 11. Your employer or payer will not deduct tax from your earnings.

Additional tax to be deducted

If you wish to have more tax deducted, fill in "Additional tax to be deducted" on the federal Form TD1.

Reduction in tax deductions

You can ask to have less tax deducted on your income tax return if you are eligible for deductions or non-refundable tax credits that are not listed on this form (for example, periodic contributions to a registered retirement savings plan (RRSP), child care or employment expenses, charitable donations, and tuition and education amounts carried forward from the previous year). To make this request, fill out Form T1213, Request to Reduce Tax Deductions at Source, to get a letter of authority from your tax services office. Give the letter of authority to your employer or payer. You do not need a letter of authority if your employer deducts RRSP contributions from your salary.
