Cover Art: In 1964, philosopher, writer and political activist Jean-Paul Sartre declined the Nobel Peace Prize for Literature due to personal and diplomatic beliefs. His refusal to accept this prestigious prize caused great unrest within the academic community and created a media frenzy. In an attempt to escape the intrusive media, Sartre hid in Simone de Beauvoir sister’s home. This notable and challenging moment in Sartre’s life is the source of inspiration for our cover.

SFU Philosophers’ Café is your chance to discuss philosophical issues with members of your community. Join the conversations throughout Metro Vancouver. All Cafés are free and open to the public. No need to register. You don’t need formal training or experience, just a willingness to listen and exchange ideas.
