QUALIFICATIONS:

- Minimum MA in Criminology or equivalent, completion of PhD coursework preferred.
- Demonstrable teaching experience and/or practical experience that allows the instructor to provide a critical analysis of the nature, extent, and basis for terrorism as an official crime throughout the world and its impact upon criminal justice systems. Specifically, applicants must demonstrate a wide knowledge of the theoretical explanations of terrorism in a comparative perspective, examining the impact of terrorism on various countries and the response of governments to it. This should be documented in a current resume/curriculum vitae and example detailed course outline.
- Teaching expertise in the area/field.
- Knowledge of relevant teaching methods (e.g. Canvas, Microsoft office applications).

DOCUMENTS REQUIRED:

- A current resume/curriculum vitae.
• A list of past courses taught at SFU and/or another University or College, and a summary of the teaching employment evaluations for those courses.
• Two letters of reference, including at least one from a department/school/program for which courses have been taught.
• A course outline (showing required texts, evaluation criteria, and week by week topic coverage).
• A statement of the applicant’s teaching pedagogy.

REQUIRED EMPLOYMENT DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

• Works closely with the Undergraduate Program Director.
• Delivers instruction, the content of which is approved by the Undergraduate Program Director of the school.
• Manages electronic and/or other platforms for the effective delivery of instruction.
• Holds regular office hours for students.
• Undertakes the grading of assignments and examinations per the grading policies/practices of the school.
• Compiles final examination and Term marks, and submits the final grades for students in the course.
• Manages grade appeals, as necessary, in a timely manner.

OTHER INFORMATION: Departments/schools/programs may interview a short list of candidates. Some qualifications/documents may be waived for graduate students enrolled in the SFU department/school/program in which they are applying to teach.

EQUITY: The University is committed to the principle of equity in employment. (See Policy GP 19.)

PRIVACY:
The information submitted with an application is collected under the authority of the University Act (R.S.B.C. 1996, c.468, s. 27(4)(a)), applicable federal and provincial employment regulations and requirements, the University's non-academic employment policies and applicable Collective Agreements.
