In addition, successful applicants will have a wide knowledge of the factors that contribute to wrongful convictions despite the safeguards built into the system, and ways to prevent or reduce their number. Extensive knowledge of criminal procedure and evidence is required. Qualifications must be documented in a current resume/curriculum vitae, and applicants must supply an example detailed course outline.
- Teaching expertise in the area/field.
- Knowledge of relevant teaching methods (e.g. Canvas, Lexis Advance Quicklaw, Microsoft Office applications).
DOCUMENTS REQUIRED:

- A current resume/curriculum vitae.
- A list of past courses taught at SFU and/or another University or College, and a summary of the teaching employment evaluations for those courses.
- Two letters of reference, including at least one from a department/school/program for which courses have been taught.
- A course outline (showing required texts, evaluation criteria, and week by week topic coverage).
- A statement of the applicant’s teaching pedagogy.

REQUIRED EMPLOYMENT DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Works closely with the Undergraduate Program Director, and with Teaching Assistants if relevant.
- Delivers instruction, the content of which is approved by the Undergraduate Program Director of the school.
- Manages electronic and/or other platforms for the effective delivery of instruction.
- If relevant, oversees Teaching Assistants while adhering to TSSU guidelines.
- If relevant, holds regular meetings with Teaching Assistants to ensure continuity and cohesiveness in the course.
- Holds regular office hours for students.
- Undertakes the grading of assignments and examinations per the grading policies/practices of the department/school/program and oversees the work of Teaching Assistants to ensure that grading standards are maintained and that marks are both appropriate and uniformly applied.
- Compiles final examination and Term marks, and submits the final grades for students in the course.
- Manages grade appeals, as necessary, in a timely manner.

OTHER INFORMATION: Departments/schools/programs may interview a short list of candidates. Some qualifications/documents may be waived for graduate students enrolled in the SFU department/school/program in which they are applying to teach.

EQUITY: The University is committed to the principle of equity in employment. (See Policy GP 19.)
