DIRECTED READINGS ENROLLMENT REQUEST FORM

Enrollment into CRIM 870 – Directed Readings is done by the Graduate Programs Secretary; students are not able to self-enroll on go.sfu.ca. Please check the Student Information System prior to semester start to confirm your successful enrollment.

Note: Ph.D. students may take up to three Directed Readings courses; however, each reading must be with a different faculty member. M.A. students may take one Directed Readings course.

Students interested in enrolling for a Directed Readings course must:

- Complete this form, and obtain the required signatures
- Attach a comprehensive bibliography or detailed outline of topics to be covered during the course
- Submit this form to the Graduate Programs Secretary at least 3 weeks prior to the start of the course

STUDENT NAME:__________________________________  STUDENT ID:__________________________________

SUPERVISING FACULTY:__________________________________

Class Attendance/Meetings:____________________________________________________________________
(indicate the anticipated frequency of meetings between instructor and student)

Final Product:__________________________________  Due Date:__________________________
(e.g. term paper, annotated bibliography, research report)  (last day of Exam Period for semester)

____________________  ____________________________________
Date     Student Signature

____________________  ____________________________________
Date     Supervising Faculty Signature

____________________  ____________________________________
Date     Graduate Program Director Signature