REQUIREMENTS FOR A MINOR IN LEGAL STUDIES

Lower Division: 60 credit hours, with a CGPA of 2.25 or better, including (each with a C- grade or better):

CRIM 135
POL 151

And one of;

CRIM 210 CRIM 230 CRIM 231

Note: PHIL 120 Introduction to Moral Philosophy is also strongly recommended for Legal Studies Minor students. It is a prerequisite for PHIL 320 and PHIL 321.

WARNING: You will not be permitted access to any Upper Division (300/400) Level courses until the above Lower Division requirements are complete and you have been approved into the Legal Studies Minor.

The School limits admission to the Upper Division of its Major/Joint Major/Minor/Extended Minor program. Students are eligible to apply in person to the Undergraduate Advisor for entry into the Legal Studies Minor program provided they have been granted admission to the university, have an approved Major, or are declared in the Bachelor of General Studies program, have a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.25, and have successfully completed 60 credit hours, which must include SFU or transfer credit for CRIM 135, POL 151, and one of CRIM 210, CRIM 230, or CRIM 231.

Please be aware that the same upper division course may not be used for formal credit in both the Criminology Major and the Minor in Legal Studies

Upper Division: Minimum eighteen (18) credit hours in 300/400 level courses, Including:

One of:

CRIM 332 CRIM 338

Plus 15 credit hours from the list on page 2 (see reverse side)

Please note that students who have completed both CRIM 332 and CRIM 338 need only to complete 12 credit hours from the list below:
IMPORTANT NOTICE for Criminology Major students who will be declaring their Legal Studies Minor for the Fall 2007 semester and thereafter.

Of the 15 total Upper Division credits (excluding CRIM 332 or CRIM 338), at least 9 must be from Criminology courses from the list below and 6 must be from non-Criminology subject from the same list below.
