Fulbright Canada Specialists Program

Bring the expertise of a senior U.S. scholar to your institution through a short-term Fulbright Specialist Grant!

The Fulbright Specialists Program is designed to provide U.S. and Canadian faculty and professionals with opportunities to collaborate on curriculum and faculty development, institutional planning and a variety of other activities. Canadian universities who are interested in having a U.S. faculty member on-campus for two to six weeks are encouraged to apply. International travel costs and an honorarium are funded by the Fulbright Program. Participating host universities cover grantee in-country expenses or provide in-kind services. A continuously expanding roster of American faculty and professionals has been developed in order to respond effectively to requests from Canadian institutions for Fulbright Specialists.

Specialists may engage in any of the following activities at their Canadian host institution:

1. Conduct needs assessments, surveys, institutional or programmatic research
2. Take part in specialized academic programs and conferences
3. Consult with administrators and instructors of post-secondary institutions on faculty development
4. Present lectures at graduate and undergraduate levels
5. Participate in or lead seminars or workshops at overseas academic institutions
6. Develop and/or assess academic curricula or educational materials
7. Conduct teacher-training programs at the tertiary level
