The health sector is ever more globalized through the increasing ease of travel, trade in health services, and the spread of new technologies. National health systems cannot function in isolation from one another as patients, health professionals, and even diseases are in a constant process of movement. The six exciting speakers in this interdisciplinary lecture series will explore these important issues. Please join us.

Medical Volunteering Abroad
John Crump
Professor of Global Health, Otago University, Dunedin, New Zealand
Thursday, 3:30 pm
September 17
IRMACS Theatre
Burnaby

Health Worker Migration
Ronald Labonté, Canada Research Chair in Globalization and Health Equity and Professor of the Institute of Population Health, University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Canada
Thursday, 3:30 pm
October 15
IRMACS Theatre
Burnaby

International Human Subject Research
Anant Bhan
Adjunct Professor, Yenepoya University, Pune, India
Thursday, 3:30 pm
October 1
IRMACS Theatre
Burnaby

Medical Tourism to Low and Middle Income Countries
Rupa Chanda, Professor in Economics at the Indian Institute of Management, Bangalore, India
Thursday, 3:30 pm
October 29
IRMACS Theatre
Burnaby

Medical Tourism to Canada
Monika Dutt, Chair, Canadian Doctors for Medicare, Cape Breton, Canada
Thursday, 3:30 pm
November 5
IRMACS Theatre
Burnaby

MUNRO LECTURE
Circumvention Tourism
Glenn Cohen, Professor of Law and Co-Director, Petrie-Flom Center for Health Law Policy, Biotechnology, and Bioethics, Harvard University, Cambridge, USA
Thursday, 7 pm
November 26
Morris J Wosk Centre for Dialogue, SFU

SPONSORS The President’s Dream Colloquium on Traveling for Health is generously funded by the SFU President’s Office, Faculty of Health Sciences, Department of Political Science, Canada Research Chair in Health Service Geographies, Munro Lecture Fund and the Office of Graduate Studies and Postdoctoral Fellows.