Ben-Gurion University (BGU)/Simon Fraser University (SFU) Cotutelle (International Joint PhD) Travel Award

TERMS OF REFERENCE

1. The purpose of this scholarship is to encourage SFU faculty to establish cotutelles (individualized joint degrees) with colleagues at Ben-Gurion University of the Negev (BGU) for BGU or SFU students. SFU students are eligible to receive up to $2000 to assist with their travel costs to BGU. Details of SFU’s policies and procedures for the establishment of cotutelles can be found on the following SFU website.

2. A limited number of BGU/SFU Cotutelle travel awards valued at up to $2000 are available.

3. The eligibility criteria for this award are:
   a. demonstrated academic excellence at the undergraduate and at the graduate level;
   b. enrolled in a BGU/SFU cotutelle program, the cotutelle must be approved by both institutions;
   c. students must spend minimally 1 year (normally 2 years) at the partner institution under the supervision of their thesis supervisor at that institution.

4. This award may be held in conjunction with other awards made by Simon Fraser University or other agencies, where permitted by those agencies.

5. The student must be nominated for this award by their SFU thesis supervisor and approved by their Graduate Program Chair. The nomination is made on the Application for a Private Graduate Scholarship form and must be accompanied by:
   a. a nomination letter from the SFU senior thesis supervisor
   b. copies of all post-secondary transcripts
   c. a copy of the SFU/BGU cotutelle agreement.

6. The award will be made by the Dean of Graduate Studies on the nomination of the thesis supervisor on behalf of the Senate Graduate Awards Adjudication Committee.
