Evidence in Co-Operative Education Students’ Written Reflections for Differential Impact of High/Low Metacognitively-Structured Prompts and Blogging Environment on Student Disequilibrium and Self-Regulated Learning during First Work Terms

Tuesday, April 01, 2014
SFU Burnaby
EDB 9511

Exposing Committee

Chair: Dr. Elina Birmingham
Senior Supervisor: Dr. Philip Winne
Supervisor: Dr. Janet McCracken
Supervisor: Dr. Allyson F. Hadwin
Internal Examiner: Dr. Maureen Hoskyn
External Examiner: Geraldine Van Gyn, Professor Emerita
University of Victoria

Abstracts of this thesis can be obtained from the Graduate Programs Office (EDB 8655)