English High School Teachers – Summer Semester

Since 1936 Columbia College has offered quality educational programs designed to prepare students for university admission. These programs include a University Transfer Program that is fully integrated into the BC Transfer System, a Secondary Program that is Certified by the Province of British Columbia, and a full-time Academic Preparatory English Program that is accredited by Languages Canada. Thousands of students, both Canadian and international, have progressed through Columbia’s programs to successful Canadian universities.

Columbia College is looking for English Instructors to teach in our High School program.

The successful candidates must have:

- A Bachelor’s degree in Education and a Bachelor’s degree in English Language.
- Credentials (CELTA, TESL or TESOL certificate) and experience teaching ESL courses.
- A BC Public or Independent School Teaching Certificate.
- The ability to teach a diverse student body.
- Exceptional classroom management skills/strategies.
- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- The ability to work collaboratively with colleagues, support staff and parents (located outside of the country).

These sessional positions will commence May 2020 and end in August 2020.

We offer a competitive compensation. The gross salary paid per high school course is $9,500 for BA holder. When the instructor has the two Bachelor’s requested degrees or a BA and PDP, the gross salary paid per course is $9,865. The gross remuneration per course is $10,469 when the candidate holds a Master’s degree.

We are currently accepting applications. Please submit a cover letter and resume consolidated into one PDF or Word document. Applications should be saved under the first and last name and sent to careers@columbiacollege.ca

We thank all applicants for their interest in the position, only those selected for an interview will be contacted.
