Teacher of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing

Burnaby offers a perfect combination of urban and residential living, and a rapid transit system makes it easily accessible to other urban centres (20 minutes to downtown Vancouver or Surrey). Surrounded by mountains, ocean, lakes and parks, Burnaby is a beautiful and livable city that enjoys a mild climate. Simon Fraser University and the BC Institute of Technology are also located here. The Burnaby School District is an urban district with 53 schools and sites, 24,000 students and a staff of 4,000.

Applications are invited from qualified teachers for full-time (1.0 FTE), part-time and occasional positions with the Burnaby School District starting immediately.

The successful candidate will have:

- a Bachelor of Education Degree or academic equivalent
- a Master's Degree or Diploma in the education of the deaf and hard of hearing or certification by the Canadian Association of Educators of the Deaf and Hard of Hearing (CAEDHH)
- fluency in sign (A.S.L.) plus the qualifications for specific teaching assignments are required for the Provincial School for the Deaf

Written application for the above position, including resume, professional credentials, supporting documents and recent letters of reference, should be submitted to:

Human Resources
Burnaby School District
5325 Kincaid Street
Burnaby, B.C. V5G 1W2
E-mail: humanresources@burnabyschools.ca -- (it is helpful if the attachments are scanned as one document) or apply on line at www.makeafuture.ca/burnaby

Appropriately qualified candidates are encouraged to apply by February 28, 2019 however; this posting remains open until filled.