LIBRARY SERVICES FOR

Health Sciences Graduate Students

BORROWING

- Graduate students at SFU enjoy a semester loan period (subject to recall)
- The Library also loans out equipment such as laptops, headphones, digital voice recorders, and phone chargers
- In-person borrowing privileges are available from many other Canadian universities. Before travelling to another institution, check with Loans staff for details.
- Loans staff can answer questions related to borrowing (renewals, fines, etc.): 778.782.7411 (Surrey), 778.782.4345 (Burnaby), and 778.782.5050 (Harbour Centre)

RESEARCH

- SFU Library has over 2 million books and access to over 500 online databases and 63,000 electronic journals, much of which is available 24/7 through the library’s website: www.lib.sfu.ca
- If SFU Library doesn’t have the book or article you need, we can get it as an interlibrary loan – at no charge to you! http://bit.ly/sfu-ILL

RESEARCH COMMONS

- The Research Commons offers workshops, one-to-one consultations related to writing skills or presentations, a “Read Ahead” service for getting feedback on written work, and a weekly “Open Writing Lab”: http://bit.ly/sfu-library-writing
- The Research Commons also offers various workshops, research support software, and other services specifically tailored to graduate students, including support for publishing and research data management: http://bit.ly/research-commons

SPECIALISTS

- You can book consultations with a variety of specialists on a wide range of topics, including research data management, GIS, NVivo, visual analytics, digital scholarship, open access publishing, research impact, copyright, and thesis formatting: http://bit.ly/SFU-specialists
