GSWS 210-3: STT: Gender Today

Huai Bao
Email: hbao@sfu.ca
Lecture: Wednesday 14:30 – 17:20, WMC 2503
Office hours: TBA
Office: AQ 5094

Course Description:

This is an introductory course that explores through special topics the ways in which how gender, sexuality and women are represented or reflected in literature, film, theatre, religious discourses, our lived realities as well as popular media. Throughout the course, we will explore the ways in which gender intersects with other crucial cultural issues such as race, nationhood, globalization, and class. This course will use a variety of teaching and learning tools including lectures, discussions, group work, guest speakers and related media. Students will be expected to complete the required readings prior to class and to come to each lecture prepared with questions and comments on the assigned materials.

Course Texts and Courseware:

Course readings will be made available on-line.

Course Evaluation and Assignments:

| Attendance and Participation | 10% |
| Midterm Exam                   | 30% |
| Research Paper                 | 30% |
| Final Exam                     | 30% |

Prerequisite: None