This course treats selected topics in the history of women's experience in British Columbia from the period of early European settlement to after World War Two. Women's work, political action, family life, and education are of particular concern.

REQUIRED READING

A package of articles will be available from the instructor.

ASSIGNMENTS

50% Research Essay (15-20 typed pages)
25% Class Participation
25% Oral History (biography based on interviews) or Analysis of a BC newspaper's treatment of women. (8-10 typed pages)

Prerequisites: 60 credit hours.