WOMEN'S STUDIES PROGRAM

FALL 1991
EVENING

W.S. 200-3
WOMEN IN CROSS-CULTURAL PERSPECTIVE

This course will examine the lives of women in three different cultural regions of the world: East Asia, South Asia, and the Middle East/North Africa. Case study material will be drawn particularly, through not exclusively, from Japan, Indian, and Morocco. Themes to be explored within each region include: religion and its influences on ideologies of womanhood and women's lives; women's relations in the family; the women's movement; and women's reproductive work and work in the labour force.
