Course Description:
This course will explore the ways in which women have used science fiction as a means to investigate the different relationships between science and religion, particularly to further social justice/care and sustainable community.

After the course, you should have:
1. familiarized yourself with feminist approaches to the study of science and religion;
2. investigated different interrelationships between science and religion;
3. developed a basic understanding of the meaning of science and religion at different levels, including epistemology, methodology, community and relationship to society;
4. traced the connections between scientific and religious world views and value systems, and the understandings of social justice and care in society;
5. considered how definitions of self and other (through cultural relations of gender, race and class) interact with scientific and religious world views.
