Temporary Position
EDUCATOR, SEXUAL VIOLENCE PREVENTION, GRADE 10
STUDENT SERVICES – SEXUAL VIOLENCE OFFICE
POSITION NUMBER: 122697

POSITION OUTLINE:
The Educator, Sexual Violence Prevention, works collaboratively with campus stakeholders to conceptualize, design, develop, implement, deliver, and evaluate comprehensive response and prevention programming for students, staff, and faculty. As a member of a cross-functional team, the Educator liaises with Student Services, Human Resources, Faculty Relations, and Safety and Risk Services to ensure programs meet institutional objectives for sexual violence education. The Educator liaises with other post-secondary institutions, with emphasis on the research universities of British Columbia to share best-practices and to collaborate and lead joint program development. The Educator markets programming and services to students, faculty, and staff, and establishes and maintains relationships with student and special interest groups, university departments, and community organizations.

QUALIFICATIONS:
- Master’s degree in Education or Gender/Women’s Studies and five years of related experience in program development and evaluation, and experience managing youth and adult volunteers, or an equivalent combination of education, training, and experience.
- Knowledge of intersectional, feminist, anti-oppressive and anti-racist practices relating to sexual, intimate, and family violence.
- Excellent knowledge of best practices in sexual violence education including traditional instruction, on-line pedagogy, video, social media, web, and print. This includes a strong understanding of program efficacy in sexual violence prevention.
- Excellent knowledge of differential impacts of trauma caused by sexual, intimate, and family violence on diverse community members.
- Excellent knowledge of survivor centered and trauma informed professional practice.
- Knowledge of intersectional, feminist, anti-oppressive and anti-racist practices relating to sexual, intimate and family violence.
- Knowledge of risk and threat assessment in community, family and post-secondary settings.
- Knowledge of local community based resources.
- Excellent interpersonal and communication skills.
- Excellent supervisory and volunteer management skills.
- Excellent conflict-resolution, interpersonal, client relationship, and communication skills (oral, written, and presentation).
- Excellent team management and leadership skills.
- Excellent project management skills including budget administration and human resource management.
- Ability to develop, implement, and evaluate sexual violence response and prevention education that recognizes the diversity of experiences for survivors based on gender identity, sexuality, race, age, class, family status, disability, Indigeneity, immigration status, language, religion, national or ethnic origin, and intersecting identities.
- Ability to engage and build rapport with various stakeholders and members of the university community.
- Ability to flexible hours including evenings and weekends.
- Proficient in the use of standard office applications, learning management systems, desktop publishing and content management systems (e.g., MS Office, CANVAS, AEM).
