APPLICATION FOR Hum 390-4: Directed Studies in Humanities

Prerequisites: Two of any 300-level Humanities courses or Permission of the Chair plus permission of the instructor (course supervisor).

This course may be used only once towards a degree.

Procedure:
1. The student identifies a faculty member who has expertise in the area of the proposed study and discusses the proposal to confirm the academic quality of the project. The student and the supervisor together draft the course proposal and complete the back of this form, which is then submitted by the student, with a copy of his/her academic record, to the Humanities Departmental Assistant for further processing and approvals.
2. The approved proposal must be submitted two weeks prior to the first day of classes.
3. The course supervisor is responsible for submitting a final grade for the project to the Humanities program office on the regular due date for courses without a scheduled exam.

Students will be added into the course only when the form is complete and all signatures have been obtained.
