The School for International Studies at Simon Fraser University invites applications for the Simons Research Fellow for the 2020–2021 academic year, with the possibility of reappointment for a second year.

Simon Fraser University is a leading Canadian public research university (consistently ranked #1 by Maclean’s Magazine for best comprehensive university in Canada). The School for International Studies is an interdisciplinary unit with research and teaching programs focused on peace and security; international development; human rights and international law; and governance and civil society. The School is based at SFU’s Vancouver campus in the heart of downtown.

The Simons Research Fellow will participate in School activities during the term of their appointment, deliver at least one presentation of their work to the School, and will teach one course in their area of expertise.

Compensation for the Simons Research Fellow is $45,000 CAD plus benefits, with an additional $3,000 CAD in research support. Selection will be based on qualifications and expected contribution to the intellectual life of the School.

Files will be reviewed beginning March 31, 2020. Applications should consist of a cover letter (including detailed research proposal), graduate transcripts, a CV, and three letters of recommendation. Referees should e-mail their letters directly to intst@sfu.ca. Please e-mail inquiries to the attention of Professor Tamir Moustafa at tmoustafa@sfu.ca.

SFU is an equity employer and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, Indigenous Peoples, people of all sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the university.

The position is subject to availability of funding.

Under the authority of the University Act personal information that is required by the University for academic appointment competitions will be collected. For further details see the collection notice at http://www.sfu.ca/vpacademic/Faculty_Openings/Collection_Notice.html
