The Voyage of the Komagata Maru Launch

TUESDAY, MAY 27, 2014
5:00 - 6:00 PM
RM 1430, HARBOUR CENTRE
515 West Hastings Street, Vancouver

With the 100th anniversary of the Komagata Maru incident in Vancouver harbour, comes a dialogue with historian Hugh Johnston (professor emeritus of history at SFU), and his brand new book titled ‘The Voyage of the Komagata Maru’.

Join us for a discussion of Vancouver’s history, Sikh history in BC, and BC’s position in the British empire in 1914.

An experience not forgotten: weeks of negotiation, frustration on board, and evidence of some good will on shore - in the midst of very bad treatment.

Refreshments will be served. Copies of this definitive new book, signed by the author, will be available.

This event is sponsored by:
School of Communication
Department of History
School for International Studies
Institute for Diaspora Research & Engagement
Centre for Sustainable Community Development