COUNTER NARRATIVES: TROUBLING OFFICIAL DISCOURSES ON THE “WAR ON DRUGS” IN MEXICO

Mexico-based journalists Julián Cardona & Dawn Paley
26 November – 7:00 to 9:00PM – SFU Harbour Centre, RM 7000

According to the Mexican government, violence in Mexico today results from turf wars between drug cartels. Cardona and Paley’s investigative reporting contests these narratives by showing how the Mexican military’s so-called war on organized crime has sparked widespread violence.
