The Department of Linguistics in the Faculty of Arts and Social Sciences at Simon Fraser University (Burnaby Campus) is seeking applications for a .5 FTE Term Lecturer position, with appointment for a 24-month period from September 1, 2019 to August 31, 2021. The successful applicant will be responsible for teaching undergraduate courses in the Department’s TESL Certificate program, including management of a supervised teaching practicum. The normal teaching load for a .5 position is 4 courses per year.

Applications will be considered from specialists in applied linguistics with qualifications in the teaching of English as a second or additional language (TESL/TEAL) to adults and demonstrated experience in teacher training.

Additional qualifications are as follows:
- PhD (completed or ABD) in applied linguistics or a closely-related field.
- Demonstrated experience in the training of adult ESL/EAL teachers.
- Ability to teach Linguistics courses in second language acquisition, second language pedagogy, and English pedagogical grammar.
- Knowledge of the TESL/TEAL teaching environment in British Columbia and the ability to supervise tutors.

In addition to a cover letter, the application must include the following:
- A current CV
- A dossier of sample supporting materials, such as course outlines and lecture materials, teaching evaluations, instructional workshops and training
- A 1 to 2-page statement of post-secondary teaching abilities and interests, including an explanation of how the applicant’s background and experience have prepared them for teacher training and informed their teaching philosophy

Candidates selected for interviews will be asked to arrange for 3 letters of reference to be sent to the Department.

SFU is an equity employer and encourages applications from all qualified individuals including women, persons with disabilities, visible minorities, Indigenous Peoples, people of all sexual orientations and gender identities, and others who may contribute to the further diversification of the university.

The closing date for applications is March 31, 2019.

Applications should be submitted electronically to lingasst@sfu.ca or sent to:
