ANNOUNCEMENTS

SURVEY RESULTS: LEARNING EXPERIENCES TRANSITION

Thanks to all of you who participated in this survey which gathered undergraduate views on transitioning to more in-person instruction, including what aspects of remote instruction best supported your learning and should be retained. All undergrads enrolled in the Fall 2020 or Spring 2021 terms were invited to take part, and more than 6,000 of you responded from February 24 through to March 10. Read more about it, or see this survey infographic (pdf).

FALL SEMESTER IN DIALOGUE

This fall Semester by the Salish Sea: Explorations in Reciprocity and Care invites students to dive deep into the ecology, history and political realities of living in a coastal city.
