ANNOUNCEMENTS

NEW RECOVERY PLAN FOR RETURN TO CAMPUS

As we prepare for a safe return to campus this fall, we’ve launched a four-stage Campus Recovery Plan. The stages reflect the rate of COVID-19 transmission in the community and will inform how we conduct face-to-face research, learning, teaching, and work. Visit Return to Campus to read more about the four stages, how decision-making specific to faculties and units will be made, and for more specific updates to your community.

WANT TO HELP WELCOME NEW STUDENTS TO SFU IN THE FALL?

We're looking for HIVE Leaders from all faculties to facilitate social and orientation activities this fall. Not only will you help new students, you’ll develop your leadership, problem-solving and event planning skills, and receive an honorarium for your time! Deadline to apply is May 14 with formal training throughout July. Apply today on myInvolvement.

DISCOVER A GLOBAL EDUCATION

Develop skills, expand perspective, create connections. Exchange applications now open for the Fall 2021 (virtual exchange) and Spring 2022 (some remaining spaces)! Check out Exchanges for destination, eligibility, and application information. Deadline: May 31 at 11:59pm PT. Or first attend the Exchange Info Session on May 13 or How to Apply for Exchange Info Session May 18.
STUDENT MEMBERSHIP ON SENATE COMMITTEES

Interested in getting involved with the campus community? Senate Committee work ranges from approving curriculum, to determining university academic priorities, developing policy on awards, scholarships and bursaries, and setting policy for the Calendar. Please submit your nomination via WebSurvey by May 31.

PARKING AT BURNABY

We will not charge students, faculty, and staff for parking during the Summer 2021 term if the vehicle is registered, although visitors and contractors will continue to pay. For more information and how to register your vehicle, please visit the Parking & Sustainable Mobility website.

PARKING AT SURREY

The Central City parkade is closed between 10:30pm to 7:00am, aligning with the Surrey campus’s current hours of operation. If you require afterhours access to the SRYC building, the rooftop parking lot adjacent to the parking entrance will remain open 24/7. More information.

FALL SEMESTER IN DIALOGUE DEADLINE APRIL 30

Semester by the Salish Sea: Explorations in Reciprocity and Care invites you to dive deep into the ecology, history and political realities of living in a coastal city. Applications are open until April 30. Reference letters are optional.

NOMINATE A FASS INSTRUCTOR OR TA FOR A STAFF ACHIEVEMENT AWARD

Have you had an inspirational moment in a class? Has a FASS TA or instructor or staff member really gone out of their way for you? (FASS is 30% of the university so you probably took a FASS class at some point.) Deadline is June 1. More information.

WATCH HOW TO MAKE BANNOCK

ONGOING RESOURCES AND SUPPORT

Health & Counselling Services is open. Student life is challenging. Health & Counselling Services is still operating with most of our services provided virtually. Book a medical appointment today or arrange to see a counsellor.

Your Health Matters Newsletter: Health & Counselling has a newsletter that you can subscribe to! Stay updated on all our events and resources.

Health Peers have been recording podcasts and filming one minute snack tutorials. Head over to this webpage to see what remote resources they have created for you.

LiveChat: Do you have general questions about the mental health support, services, and resources at SFU? Join the LiveChat on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays from 9:30 - 11:30am and 1:30 - 3:30pm to learn more. No appointment or registration required.
Drop-in HCS Advising: Balancing all your priorities during these uncertain times can be difficult. Our Access Case Managers are here to ensure students seeking care feel validated, connected, and heard. More information.

Download My SSP: Take advantage of the free mental health resources offered through My SSP. You can speak to a counsellor through call or chat, and access remote resources, like articles, videos, podcasts, and much more. Or see one of our counsellors: read about how to book your appointment and what you can expect.

Women of Colour: Self-identified women of colour can find support at Mindful Medicine for Women of Colour. This is a six-week therapy group focused on mindfulness and self-compassion. Starts on May 21. More information and registration.

Self-Isolation Support: Do you need to self-isolate? SFU’s CARES program (COVID Assistance & Remote Engagement Support) can provide a safe environment while meeting all necessary guidelines and allowing you to feel part of our community. Our program includes options for accommodation and meals, if needed, as well as remote support if you already have your own self-isolation plans.

INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS

International Student Advisors are working remotely and can answer questions related to immigration (study/work permits, visa, travel restrictions, etc.) or medical insurance. Visit our Connect with Us page to see more information on how to connect with an advisor.

CONNECTING WITH STUDENT SERVICES

Registrar & Information Services: Our offices have temporarily discontinued in-person services on all three campuses until further notice. However, our staff are still available to help during remote office hours to support you via Live Help, phone, and email.
