CONGRATULATIONS TO THE CLASS OF JUNE 2022!

For those of you completing your studies this term, congratulations on your upcoming graduation from Simon Fraser University! All of us at Student Services look forward to celebrating your amazing accomplishments at the June Convocation. We’re also excited to see our returning graduates, who only had the opportunity for a virtual convocation in to see our returning graduates, who only had the opportunity for a virtual convocation in previous years, cross the stage in person next month.

As this may be your last Student Bulletin, we want to thank you for taking the time to keep up with our announcements and updates. Be sure to stay connected with SFU through all your future endeavours.

COMPLETE A SURVEY, HELP SHAPE SFU'S FUTURE

Join fellow students in answering the question “SFU: What’s Next?” by completing an anonymous survey that only takes a few minutes. You’ll help define SFU's vision, purpose, commitments and priorities. We also invite you to join the discussions already underway on ThoughtExchange.

DEADLINES AND UPDATES

BUS SERVICE CHANGES

Sunny weather means your travel needs change, so now more buses are headed to the beaches. Check out the Spring Service Changes at Translink.

SUMMER 2022 U-PASS EXEMPTION

The 2022 Summer U-Pass BC exemption application is now available online. The deadline to apply is May 16 at 4:30 p.m. The April and May U-Pass BC are both available on the U-Pass BC website.

DON'T HAVE YOUR SFU ID YET? GET IT NOW!
If you’re taking in-person classes at any of our campuses, you can request and receive your Student ID Card immediately at Registrar and Information Services. Please see our hours of operation above. If you’re taking classes through remote learning only, you can still request a card using our web form. Your card will be mailed to the address you provide on the form, so please ensure the correct address is filled.

DON’T LEAVE VALUABLES UNATTENDED

Personal item theft is the most reported crime on all Canadian campuses. There are many ways to protect your valuables: don’t leave anything unattended, be aware of your surroundings and report suspicious activities to Campus Security’s emergency line at 778-782-4500. Check out more tips on how to prevent theft.

WHAT’S NEW AND COMING SOON

SFU FOOD PANTRY

The SFU Food Pantry is a food bank for students in need of emergency food and hygiene supplies. They are open on Wednesdays from 12 to 3 p.m. on the lower level of Maggie Benston Centre. Bring your student ID.

CAREER ADVICE FOR UPCOMING GRADS

Are you graduating soon? “I’m Graduating. Now What?” is a new workshop designed to help you plan your future after SFU and make a difference. Get expert advice from SFU career professionals and connect with other graduating students as you learn the tips and the tricks most students miss in building their careers. Learn more and register here.
SEEDLING TO SIDEDISH

Cultivate and cook a culturally diverse array of fruits and veggies! Join Embark Sustainability in person for “Seedling to Sidedish: Explore Cultural Plants and Palettes” and explore recipes from across the globe that make use of produce grown in our climate. Seeds and recipe cards will be distributed. Register for the event on May 6 from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m.

BRING ON THE BUZZ! POLLINATOR WALK N’ TALK

Did you know that one out of three bites you eat is thanks to a bee? Learn more about the 800 species of native bees that contribute to wild plants and our food supply, plus what you can do to support these priceless pollinators. Join Embark Sustainability on their upcoming Pollinator Walk n’ Talk on May 19 from 12:30 to 2 p.m.

THE SOCIAL ECHOES: LEARNING TO UNLEARN

SFU Criminology graduate and undergraduate students came together recently to create “Social Echo: Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women and Girls” to bring awareness to the process of truth and reconciliation. Now they’re bringing the project to the public at the Burnaby Festival of Learning. Join them for “Learning to Unlearn,” an interactive online presentation on May 6, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m.

DISCOVER A GLOBAL EDUCATION

Develop skills, expand perspective and create connections while you internationalize your degree and resume. Apply for an exchange term to one of SFU’s 130+ partner institutions in 45+ countries around the world. Applications for the limited Fall 2022 and/or Spring 2023 exchange terms are now open. Check your eligibility and apply by May 25.

SIGN YOUR CLUB UP FOR CLUB DAYS
The in-person Clubs Days are back! From May 17 to 19, Convocation Mall will be full of representatives from student clubs between 11 and 3 p.m. Make sure to book a table if you want your club, student union or other affiliated group to participate in this summer semester event! Learn more and register.
