Apply for SFU Scholarships and Awards

Full-time students participating in Study Abroad programs are eligible to apply for Scholarships and Awards. Each term, there may be specific Scholarships and Awards available for students participating in an SFU Formal Exchange term (students apply in the term in which they are registered in their Exchange Units) or Field School. A list of Scholarships and Awards available for the term of application can be found on the Financial Aid and Awards website: https://www.sfu.ca/students/financialaid/undergrad/scholarships.html.

To be eligible for Scholarships students must:
- Be enrolled in at least 9 SFU units
- Have a minimum SFU CGPA of 3.50 and be in good academic standing
- Cannot be in receipt of an ongoing SFU Entrance scholarship

Apply online by logging in to your SFU Student Information System, go.sfu.ca. Click on the “Apply for Scholarships/Awards” link. You can check the status of your Scholarship, Award, or Bursary application, by clicking on your Student Aid & Award Profile and viewing your FAA Term Detail information.

Undergraduate Open Scholarship Program while on Formal Exchange

Students can continue to be eligible while participating in an SFU Formal Exchange or a Field School term. Please refer to https://www.sfu.ca/students/financialaid/undergrad/open-scholarship.html.

Study Abroad Funding through International Services for Students

In an effort to support students who are participating in an SFU Formal Exchange or Field School program, International Services for Students has identified additional funding options to assist students with the costs of travel and living expenses while pursuing their studies abroad. For further details, please visit: https://www.sfu.ca/content/sfu/students/studyabroad/funding/search-funding-options/exchange-funding.html.
Apply for SFU Bursaries

Full-time students participating in Study Abroad programs are eligible to apply for bursaries. Specific bursaries are available for students participating in an SFU Formal Exchange or Field School. Exchange and Field School bursaries are awarded during the term you are participating in your Study Abroad experience.

To be eligible for a bursary a student must:
- Be enrolled in at least 9 SFU units
- Have a minimum SFU CGPA of 2.0 and be in good academic standing
- Have a demonstrated financial need (as assessed by SFU)

Apply online by logging in to your SFU Student Information System, go.sfu.ca. Click on the “Apply for WorkStudy/Bursaries” link. In the Bursary application, to identify you are participating in an exchange or field school, you must answer yes to Question 5. You will need to complete the Appendix 1A to provide further information about your exchange or field school. You can check the status of your Scholarship, Award, or Bursary application, by clicking on your Student Aid & Award Profile and viewing your FAA Term Detail information.

Other funding opportunities offered by Financial Aid and Awards

The Irving K. Barber British Columbia Scholarship Society, in partnership with the Victoria Foundation, provides scholarships to students studying abroad. Students can apply directly to the Society for the Premier’s International Scholarship ($6,000-$10,000). The deadline to apply for the 2016 Premier’s Scholarship is April 29, 2016. Please visit http://www.ikbbc.ca/web/international.

One World International Scholarships ($1,000-$3,500) are available to students pursuing study or work abroad programs. For applications and further information, visit http://www.ikbbc.ca/web/international. Applicants for the upcoming Summer 2016 or Fall 2016 must submit a completed package to SFU Financial Aid and Awards by April 29, 2016. Students who will be participating in an international study or work abroad program in the Spring 2017 term will have a deadline to apply in early November (TBD).
