1. Amendments to License Agreement

SFU may, at any time and from time to time, unilaterally revise the terms of this License Agreement and/or the Residence Handbook by sending you an email notification of the applicable revision(s). Once you have received your SFU computing ID, all communication will be sent to your SFU email provided by SFU, or by written notice delivered to the room or unit assigned to you within a Residence Building. Prior to receiving your SFU computing ID, communication will be sent to the email you provided through the Housing Portal during the application period. Any changes to this License Agreement or the Residence Handbook will be effective and binding on and from the date set out in SFU’s notification. If no date is set out in the notification, any changes will be effective one week from the date the notification was sent. Note that SFU reserves the right to implement changes immediately when, in the opinion of the Director, Residence and Housing or his or her designate, the health or safety of any person may be adversely affected by a delay.

2. Assignment Policy

When assigning specific rooms or units, SFU will not discriminate on the basis of race, colour, religion, place of origin, ancestry or sexual orientation. SFU will attempt to accommodate special requests (e.g. single gender floor) but cannot guarantee any particular type of accommodation. This License Agreement is not void or voidable on the basis that you do not receive a particular type of accommodation.

SFU reserves the right at any time and from time to time, with or without notice, to assign or change roommates or to change building, room or unit assignments to consolidate vacancies, or for any other purpose. In such cases, you will be required to pay the applicable Residence Fees for the new accommodation (including the costs associated with any mandatory meal plan, if applicable). SFU is not responsible for any moving costs.

3. Compliance with Laws, etc.

You agree to comply with the terms and conditions of this License Agreement and the Residence Handbook, and to abide by all federal, provincial and local government laws, regulations and bylaws and all SFU rules, regulations, policies and procedures as issued, amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time. To the extent that there is any discrepancy between matters dealt with both in this License Agreement and any other document published by SFU’s Residence and Housing Office, the provisions of this License Agreement will govern. SFU’s policies and procedures can be viewed online at: https://www.sfu.ca/policies.html.

4. Construction and Maintenance

There will be ongoing maintenance, renovation and construction projects occurring in and around Residence Buildings. Residence is expanding and there will be major construction of new buildings at several locations in close proximity to existing residence buildings. Construction and maintenance work generally occurs during regular business hours, but may at times begin earlier or extend into evenings or weekends, and ongoing projects will continue through exam periods. SFU will take measures to ensure that prudent construction practices are followed for all projects under SFU’s control, but there may be noise, dust and temporary interruption of some services. You may be required to temporarily or permanently relocate to facilitate construction, emergency maintenance, or renovations to or around your Residence Building. There will be no compensation or reduction in Residence Fees due to any disruption or relocation associated with ongoing construction projects, renovations, or maintenance requirements.

5. Contract Term

If you are accepting an offer from SFU, this License Agreement will be valid for the Contract Term, which generally coincides with one or more of SFU’s Academic Terms (e.g. fall, spring, or summer). The Contract Term applicable to this License Agreement is indicated in your Housing Offer and on your application/offer details page in SFU’s Residence and Housing online housing portal.

If your Contract Term extends or renews from one Academic Term to the next, your Contract Term includes any term break immediately prior to the upcoming Academic Term for which you have a contract.

If there is any conflict or inconsistency between the details contained in your Housing Offer and the details contained in your application/offer details page in SFU’s Residence and Housing online housing portal, the latter will govern.

6. Damages and Costs

You are responsible for all loss of property and damages (including all associated service or administrative costs) that you or your guest(s) cause to any Residence Building or other SFU property, whether intentional or unintentional. SFU will charge all related costs to your student account and will provide you with written notice of such charge. You agree to submit payment for these costs to SFU on or before the payment deadline.

If SFU is unable to determine who is responsible for damage, destruction and/or loss to a common area space, the cost of such damage, destruction and/or loss, and all related costs associated with cleaning and repair, may be divided and assessed equally between or among the students living within a particular unit (e.g. the Townhouses) or on a particular floor (e.g. the Towers) if SFU’s Residence and Housing Office staff reasonably believe that multiple students within such unit or floor were involved.

7. Denial of Other University Services

In addition to any other remedies available to it pursuant to this License Agreement or at law, SFU may suspend your student privileges and deny you student services if any Residence Fees, fees, assessments, damages, costs or other amounts owed by you to SFU pursuant to this License Agreement remain unpaid, either during the Contract Term or after its expiry or sooner termination.

8. Disclosure of Personal Information

You hereby acknowledge and agree that SFU may, in accordance with applicable privacy legislation, contact and release your personal information:

(a) to your parents and/or guardians and/or designated emergency contact, in the event you become seriously ill or are involved in an emergency; and

(b) to third party authorities and other SFU departments or services and to your parents and/or guardians and/or designated emergency contact, if you are involved in criminal activity (including drug related activity) or threats to your own safety or the safety of others.
9. Early Move-In / Late Move-Out

An early move-in or late move-out may be permitted if you are able to provide written evidence satisfactory to SFU’s Residence and Housing Office that such early move-in or late move-out is necessary for a university related purpose, subject to availability. You may apply to extend your Contract Term to provide for an early-move in or late move-out by submitting a “Contract Term Extension Application Form” to SFU’s Residence and Housing Office. A non-refundable daily room fee, as determined by SFU from time to time, will apply for any early move-in or late move-out.

a) if you are a SFU undergraduate student:
   (i) your being registered in at least 9 credits per Academic Term included in your Contract Term (provided that if your Contract Term includes a summer Academic Term in which you are not registered in at least 9 credits, you must be registered in the spring Academic Term and you must be eligible to enroll in the upcoming fall Academic Term);
   (ii) your being registered in equivalent full time studies such as Back on Track, Co-op Education; or
   (iii) your having a recommendation from the Centre for Accessible Learning, or Academic Advising for reduced course load and your being registered for such reduced course load;

11. Governing Law

This License Agreement will be construed and interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Province of British Columbia and the laws of Canada applicable therein.

12. Insurance

SFU carries insurance for its own benefit and does not provide you with any insurance, including but not limited to general insurance, liability insurance or property insurance for your personal belongings. You are strongly advised to ensure that all of your personal effects used or stored anywhere within a Residence Building are covered by a private insurance policy covering both loss of personal property and liability for personal injury and property damage. Insurance may be available as an extension of your family’s home insurance policy, or you can obtain your own insurance policy. You are advised to consult with your insurance agent to ensure you have appropriate coverage and that you understand the terms of your policy. The Residence Handbook contains additional information on insurance.

13. Liability

SFU is not responsible for property belonging to you or any of your guests which is lost, stolen or damaged in any way, regardless of cause or location. SFU is not responsible for any injury, death, damage or loss whatsoever caused to you or your guests while in or about any Residence Buildings or any SFU campus or while engaged in activities organized or sponsored by SFU. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, SFU shall not be responsible for injury, damage or loss to you or your guests, or your respective property, due to:
(a) use of SFU’s facilities and equipment including, but not limited to, exercise equipment, sports equipment, barbeques, tennis courts and the swimming pool;

(b) participation in socials, dances, plays or other organized or sponsored activities; or

(c) participation in organized or sponsored off-campus activities including ski trips and tours.

You will not do, or permit to be done, any act or thing that may render void or voidable any SFU insurance policy. You agree to indemnify and save harmless SFU from and against any expense, loss or damage suffered by SFU as a result of or in connection with your breach or non-performance of any term or condition of this License Agreement or the Residence Handbook.

14. Meal Plan

If you are residing in any of the Shadbolt Tower, the Barbara Rae Tower or the Pauline Jewett Tower, you are required to purchase a meal plan. The purchase of a meal plan is part of your acceptance of this License Agreement. Residents of other Residence Buildings may choose to purchase an optional meal plan. The associated fees are due in accordance with the residence fee deadlines or at the time of purchase if the optional plan is requested after the fee dates have passed. The Residence Handbook contains additional information on meal plans, including termination of meal plans and refund policies.

15. Moving In

You may check-in to your assigned room or unit by going to SFU’s Residence and Housing Office after 9:00 a.m. on your Move-In Date. If you plan to arrive more than three (3) days after your Move-In date, you must make arrangements in writing for a late check-in with SFU’s Residence and Housing Office. If you do not move into your accommodation within three (3) days of your Move-In Date and you have not made late check-in arrangements as described in the previous sentence, this License Agreement will automatically terminate and your accommodation will be reassigned without further notice. All termination fees will be applied. SFU will not accept personal property delivered to SFU prior to your arrival.

Following move in, you will have up to seven (7) days to complete an electronic Room Inventory Condition Review through SFU’s Residence and Housing online housing portal. This process is used to document the condition of your room or unit and any missing inventory items. It is essential that you complete this Room Inventory Condition Review in order to avoid being charged for damages that existed, or items that were already missing, at the time of your move in. If you fail to complete this form on or before the deadline, the conditions currently on file will be taken as accepted conditions of the unit.

16. Moving Out

You are required to vacate your assigned room or unit, and return all residence keys to SFU’s Department of Residence and Housing Office, by 12:00 p.m. on your Move-Out Date. If you fail to do so without making arrangements in writing for a late check-out with SFU’s Residence and Housing Office, you may be charged additional fees based on applicable policies and procedures as implemented by SFU from time to time. You may also be charged for any fees incurred by SFU in connection with providing alternate hotel accommodation to any new student scheduled to move in to your assigned room or unit, if applicable.

Your room or unit must be clean and tidy at the time of move-out. You must not leave any personal belongings in your room or unit, within any common areas or anywhere else within or around a Residence Building after your move-out. SFU’s Residence and Housing Office will consider any personal items remaining in your room or unit after 12:00 p.m. on your Move-Out Date to be abandoned and they will be removed and discarded and any costs associated with such removal will be charged to your student account.

After check-out, SFU’s Residence and Housing Office staff will inspect your room or unit, together with any common areas, as applicable. The costs associated with any: (i) required cleaning services, (ii) missing items not documented on the Room Inventory Condition Review, and (iii) damage not documented on the Room Inventory Condition Review, will be charged to your student account or deducted from any refund of your Residence Fees, if applicable. Reasonable wear and tear is expected.

SFU may deem your room or unit abandoned when:

(a) a substantial amount of your personal property is removed and your Residence Fees are unpaid after the date that they are due; or

(b) a substantial amount of your personal property is removed after your Move-Out Date has passed; or,

(c) your Residence Fees remain unpaid after the date they are due and SFU has not received a response from you for a period of 10 days after sending you a notification by the same notification process outlined in Section 1 of this License Agreement.

If SFU deems your room or unit to be abandoned, SFU may re-enter your room or unit and, in addition to any additional rights that SFU may have, may re-license your room or unit. In doing so, SFU may re-enter the room or unit without notice or liability to you for any damage. You acknowledge and agree that in the case of abandonment, SFU will remove and dispose of your personal property without compensation to you and will not be obligated to store such belongings or to sell them or otherwise recover their value.

17. Overholding

If you remain in occupation of your assigned room or unit after 12:00 p.m. on your Move-Out Date or your eviction date, no new right of occupation is thereby created and SFU may, without notice, re-enter and take possession of your assigned room or unit, remove you and all other persons and property and use such force and assistance as SFU deems necessary to retake possession of your assigned room or unit. In this situation, any Residence Fees processed through SFU’s online payment process or otherwise shall not be effective to create any new or continued right of occupation unless such right of occupation and receipt of payment are expressly acknowledged by the Director, Residence and Housing or his or her designate. If the Director, Residence and Housing or his or her designate has provided such written acknowledgement, then any right of occupation that is thereby created shall be for the period contained in such written acknowledgement, at the Residence Fees previously payable for your assigned room or unit, and subject to the terms and conditions of this License Agreement, as applicable, for the occupancy period.

In no case shall any acceptance of Residence Fees for your assigned room or unit after the expiry of the Contract Term of this License Agreement result in any right of occupancy after 12:00 p.m. on your Move-Out Date or your eviction date.

18. Rates and Payments

You agree to pay to SFU, on or before the payment deadline(s), the Residence Fees, including any required meal plan or any optional fees which you have requested. The residence confirmation payment is applied towards your residence fees and cannot be applied or deferred to a later application, and is non-refundable, except in the limited circumstances set out herein. The current rates and schedule of payment is available online: https://www.sfu.ca/students/residences/fees.html.

All Residence Fees are calculated per term and if for any reason it becomes necessary to calculate any Residence Fees for a lesser period, an appropriate weekly pro-rata adjustment will be made.

You can pay your Residence Fees online through the Housing Portal via debit card, credit card payment, Flywire (an international payment transfer), or at SFU’s Residence and Housing Office via international money order, personal cheque, debit card, or credit card.
The following terms apply to all fees and payments made to SFU’s Residence and Housing Office:

(a) post-dated cheques will not be accepted;

(b) a service fee will be charged to your student account for all cheques returned by your bank for any reason; and

(c) late payments will only be accepted through approved deferment and must be requested prior to the deadline. Otherwise a late fee penalty will be applied. Deferment forms are available at www.sfu.ca/students/residences.

19. Relationship

You hereby acknowledge and agree that nothing in this License Agreement creates any relationship other than that of licensor and licensee and this License Agreement does not create a lease or other interest in land. As expressly stated in the Residential Tenancy Act of British Columbia, the Residential Tenancy Act of British Columbia does not apply to this License Agreement or to your occupation of your assigned room or unit.

20. Repairs, Maintenance and Alterations

All repairs, maintenance, and alterations to Residence Buildings must be carried out by authorized SFU personnel. You are not permitted to repair or alter your room, unit or Residence Building in any way including, but not limited to, putting holes in the walls. You must promptly report any repair or maintenance issues to SFU’s Residence and Housing Office online through the Housing Portal. Without limiting the foregoing, you are prohibited from painting or wallpapering your assigned room or unit or any other walls within your Residence Building.

Shell House and the Townhouses contain encapsulated asbestos, which does not pose a hazard if undisturbed.
