Position Title: Student Sustainability Educator - 8 positions available
Department: SFU Sustainability Office
Position Reports to: Community Engagement Coordinator, Sustainability Office
Campus Location: Burnaby Campus

APPLICATION CLOSE DATE: Thursday April 27, 2017

REQUIRED TIME COMMITMENT: A total of six 2-hour shifts over lunchtime (12:00pm – 2:00pm) throughout the days of May 8th – 19th, 2017 (weekdays only).

POSITION SUMMARY
Student Sustainability Educators are needed to assist the Sustainability Office in promoting and monitoring the progress of SFU’s flagship Zero Waste Initiative at the start of the semester. This will involve educating the SFU community on the four waste streams, their signage and symbols, and conducting audits of the stations. Educators will be demonstrating how to use the new stations in person through a variety of methods, including fun and engaging games and activities.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES
- Participating in an in-person training session, which will provide an overview of the Zero Waste program and provide volunteers with the tools necessary to address questions to fulfill this position. You must be available for a 1 hour training session on Burnaby campus on Thursday, May 4th, 2017 from 9am-10am.
- Informing students, staff, and faculty of the different waste streams and disposal procedures by engaging with users on site and answering questions about the program and other sustainability initiatives at SFU.
- Monitoring the success of the Zero Waste program by conducting waste audits and providing feedback to the Sustainability Office.

SKILLS GAINED
- Experience in sustainability education and community engagement.
- Improved interpersonal and communications skills through working with the diverse SFU community.
- Experience in surveying, auditing and improved data management skills.
- Experience in program testing and community consultation.
- Improved independent and teamwork skills.

REQUIRED QUALIFICATIONS:
- Motivated and outgoing SFU student or recent graduate, with a self-directed and resourceful attitude.
- Interest in sustainability on campus with a passion for learning more.
- Excellent verbal communication skills, with a strong command of the English language.
- Comfortable working alone or as part of a team.
- SIN number required.
- Must attend an in-person training session on the Burnaby campus prior to commencing work.
BENEFITS:
- $150 honorarium on completion of 12 hour commitment (excluding training session)
- Training, t-shirt and support materials
- Letter of recommendation from the SFU Sustainability Office

APPLICATION DETAILS:
Submit your resume and a one paragraph description answering the following questions to Terri Rutty, Community Engagement Coordinator, Sustainability Office, SFU Sustainability Office at terri.rutty@sfu.ca

- Why are you interested in sustainability at SFU?
- What are your ideas for promoting Zero Waste at SFU?
- What are your ideas for approaching and engaging the university community in Zero Waste?

In your email, please also include:
- your t-shirt size (please indicate if you already have a green ‘Zero Waste’ shirt in suitable condition)
- class schedule (you must be available between 12:00pm and 2:00pm at least 3 days per week in order to fulfill the duties of this role).

Remember that you must be available for the Thursday, May 4th, 2017 from 9am-10am training session to qualify for this position.

Please title your document and email subject heading in the following format:
[YOUR NAME]-Application-Sustainability Educator-[DATE OF SUBMISSION]