This initiative is brought to you by the Connecting Community to Surrey Youth Aging Out of Care project, through the Surrey Poverty Reduction Coalition.

Do you ever wish you could talk to people working in jobs or pursuing education in areas that interest you?

Are you wondering about different career or education paths?

PLenty OF THREADS

Connecting the education and employment community to youth from care.

Join the Plenty of Threads program, and have one-on-one coffee meetings with cool humans who are in jobs, education programs and careers that might interest you!

Have we sparked your curiosity?

If you are between the ages of 19 and 27, and you are a youth from care then we want to hear from you! Contact Trisha Dulku at tdulku@sfu.ca for more details and next steps!
