I am pleased to submit the 2018 Senate Graduate Studies Committee Annual Report.

The Senate Graduate Studies Committee is charged by Senate with the following terms of reference:

1. To maintain the academic standards established by Senate.
2. To review and make recommendations to Senate concerning new graduate programs.
3. To review and make recommendations to Senate concerning major changes to graduate programs.
4. To review and approve all proposed new graduate courses, course deletions, and minor changes to programs. These changes shall be reported to Senate in summary form.
5. To administer, review and make recommendations to Senate concerning Graduate General Regulations.
6. To consider matters concerning Graduate Studies referred to the Committee, and to make recommendations to the appropriate bodies.
7. To consider and decide on policy recommendations concerning graduate course registration, course and program withdrawal procedures, and on the administration of graduate records.

This report covers the period of January 1, 2018 to December 31, 2018, during which SGSC held nine meetings.

The Senate Graduate Studies Committee has two subcommittees: SGSC Appeal Subcommittee (Unsatisfactory Progress under GGR 1.8.2), and the SGSC Subcommittee Individualized Interdisciplinary Studies Steering Committee (Individualized Interdisciplinary Studies Graduate Program).

Discussions on graduate education
SGSC discussed various issues pertaining to supervision policy and senior supervisor appointments, strengthening of co-supervision, the collective agreement, minimum funding and best practices for offer letters. Among other issues reviewed were thesis name change protocol and tuition fee change process. SGSC discussed 2019-2021 BC Graduate Program (BCGS) award and creation of Strategic Management Enrollment Committee. Potential increase to the length of Cohort Special Arrangements programs (CSAR) was also reviewed.
SGSC reviewed, recommended, approved and submitted to Senate curriculum changes related to the addition, deletion and modification of programs and courses, as well as revisions to regulations.
