Call for Volunteers

Are you interested in global issues? Wouldn’t it be awesome if groups from all around the province met up to talk about how we can make a difference?

The BC Council for International Cooperation is looking for volunteers for our Annual General Meeting and annual forum on Friday, September 18th, 2015.

This is an ideal opportunity for individuals interested in:

• Learning more about the international development sector in BC and abroad
• Meeting representatives of civil society organizations from all over the province
• Getting a feel for the high level international forums that will be taking place in 2015
• Finding out how you can be involved as a local change-maker!

BCCIC is looking for 8-10 volunteers who can be available from 7:30AM – 4:30PM on Friday, September 18th. Tasks volunteers will be required for are:

• Registration and host duties
• Food prep including assisting the caterers and refilling water pitchers
• Photographer
• Some note-taking
• Some set-up and logistics

In return for donating your time, BCCIC will provide FREE entry to the full days’ activities including:

• Opportunity to hear and meet our keynote speaker from Nepal,
• Opportunity to hear and meet representatives from Department of Foreign Affairs, Trade and Development Canada (DFATD)
• Opportunity to participate in workshops on the new Sustainable Development Goals
• Complimentary coffee, snacks, and a full lunch

Deadline to express interest is Friday, September 11th, 2015.

Interested individuals are asked to contact Kareen Wong at kareen@bccic.ca or at 604-899-4475.

About BCCIC

BCCIC is a coalition of British Columbia voluntary international development organizations and provincial branches of such organizations committed to achieving sustainable global development in a peaceful and healthy environment, with social justice, human dignity and participation for all.