We Invite Applications for the Following Position:

Graduate Research Assistant

Under the supervision of Project Manager and Research Director, a part-time Graduate Research Assistant is required for an Indigenous education research project to assist with literature review.

Responsibilities:
- Support the development of a literature review on best practices in K-12 Indigenous education with a specific focus on governance, administration, funding structures and student outcomes. This includes on-line literature searches, creation of an article data-base, and bibliographies etc.

Skills:
- Knowledge and strong understanding of Microsoft Word
- Knowledge of Indigenous methodologies in research.
- Exemplary communication skills (oral and written)
- Knowledge and experience working with Indigenous communities and K-12 education.
- Knowledge and experience working with Indigenous communities and K-12 education.
- Must be currently enrolled in a doctoral program at a lower mainland university.

Salary $30.00/hr plus 12% benefits @ 30-40 hrs for contract
Start Date: ASAP
End Date: October 31st, 2018

Please email a detailed CV and cover letter by 4:30 pm by September 2nd, 2018 to Dr. Jeannie Morgan: nmorgan@sfu.ca & Dr. Amy Parent: aparent@sfu.ca