SAGE (Supporting Aboriginal Graduate Enhancement) Provincial Coordinator

SAGE is inviting applications from Indigenous graduate students to support leadership, mentoring and communication activities in the role of SAGE Provincial Coordinator. SAGE is a province-wide, inter-institutional, peer/faculty support mentoring educational program.

(SAGE - Aboriginal Portal)

Responsibilities of the role include:

- Liaise between Vancouver SAGE and other SAGE pods in the province and beyond BC
- Create monthly SAGE Digest (September to March) and manage gradsage.com blog
- Manage and communicate activities of the SAGE list-serve
- Facilitate mentoring opportunities for Indigenous graduate students
- Assist with the Vancouver SAGE meetings at UBC Campus
- Assist with the planning and organization of the annual Indigenous Graduate Student Symposium (IGSS)
- Organize and coordinate a database
- Coordinate and lead meetings and mentoring activities

Terms of the appointment include:
September 01, 2018 – March 15, 2019 (28 weeks) @ 5 hours/week @ $25/hour

This position could be shared with another graduate student as duties could be divided among communications and mentoring activities.

Posting will remain open until position is filled.

Dr. Jan Hare
Associate Dean for Indigenous Education
Faculty of Education
University of British Columbia | Unceded Musqueam Territory
indigenous.education@ubc.ca