Curriculum Development Project:
Special Assignment in lieu of 1 contact hours per week in April, 4 contact hours per week in May – June.

Stage 1 - Time in lieu of 1 contact hours per week over 4 weeks has been allocated for 2 instructors in April, 2019.

Stage 2 - Time in lieu of 4 contact hours per week over 8 weeks for 2 instructors in May – June, 2019

Project Goals:

- Review summarized data from surveys, focus groups, researched best practices, and SFU, LL, ELC mission and vision objectives
- Develop frameworks for curriculum for the ELC program
- Help present on, gather feedback on and update frameworks
- Establish templates, teacher and student aids for course objectives, curriculum rotations, and course syllabi
- Assist in gathering of feedback on curriculum templates and aids
- Create electronic and physical organizational systems for curriculum materials
- Aid in the development of implementation of pilot, feedback systems, and instructor training

Expectations:

1. Collaborate with the Instructional Coordinator and Curriculum Development Lead at regularly scheduled meetings;
2. Maintain frequent and clear communication with the Instructional Coordinator and Curriculum Development Lead regarding all aspects of project work and deadlines.

Recommended Qualifications:

- One year (minimum) experience teaching a range of ELC courses;
- Experience developing curriculum for a language program;
- Demonstrated ability to meet deadlines;
- Demonstrated ability to work as part of a team;
- Experience teaching in a variety of curriculum and assessment models;
- Excellent organizational skills, including the ability to prioritize work;
- Familiarity with best practices in EAL curriculum development;
- Demonstrated understanding of and sensitivity to intercultural competency, equity, diversity and inclusion
- Available for work for the duration of the project April – June, 2019

Interested instructors should send an email of application outlining their qualifications and experience to Geoff Taylor geofft@sfu.ca no later than Monday, April 1st, 2019 at 4:00 pm.

SFU is committed to the principle of equity in employment and offers equal employment opportunities to all qualified applicants.