The English Language and Culture Program
_Lifelong Learning_

Two Part-Time Continuing Instructor Positions

The English Language and Culture Program (ELC) in Lifelong Learning (Vancouver Campus) is seeking to fill two _Part-time Continuing Instructor_ positions.

Job duties include classroom instruction, student assessment and evaluation, and administrative and professional duties relevant to the position.

Minimum qualifications for ELC instructors are: a graduate degree or within one year of completion of a graduate degree; excellent spoken and written English skills; and suitable experience or training in methods and techniques of instruction. Overseas teaching experience and certification from a recognized ESL teacher-training institution will also be considered.

Salary range: Based on number of teaching contact hours per term and the SFU/TSSU Collective Agreement pay scales.

Note: All teaching positions in the English Language and Culture program are conditional upon enrollment.

Internal candidates have been identified.

Deadline for application: Friday, December 13, 2019 at 4:30 p.m.

Applicants should send their letter of application and curriculum vitae via email attachment to bertrand.lee@sfu.ca attention to:

Bertrand Lee, Director
English Language and Culture Program
Lifelong Learning
Simon Fraser University

_Simon Fraser University is committed to the principles of equity in employment and offers equal employment opportunities to qualified applicants._

The information submitted with your application is collected under the authority of the University Act (R.S.B.C. 1996, c.468, s. 27(4) (a)), applicable federal and provincial employment regulations and requirements, the University’s employment policies and applicable collective agreements. The information is related directly to processing your application for an instructor position and to complete offers of employment for successful applicants.