Research Assistant (RA) Position

The Department of Economics is looking for a Research Assistant to assist with a research project involving second language writing in Economics.

Job
The duties include, but are not limited to the following:

- Assisting with a literature review in the areas of first and second language writing pedagogy in Economics;
- Assessment of writing improvement
- Assessment of students’ knowledge and practice of writing
- Assisting with data entry and analysis as needed

Qualifications
- Current graduate student at SFU
- Experience and/or interest in working with students for whom English is an additional language
- Excellent written and oral communication skills in English (excellent written and oral communication in additional languages is also desirable, but not required)
- Experience involving TAing/teaching writing desired
- Some research experience desired
- Some knowledge of economics is desired

Duration
September 15, 2019 to December 15, 2019

Rate
$25.00 per hour. Estimated total hours: 60

Application
Apply by email to econcurr@sfu.ca with a cover letter and current CV, and the name of one faculty reference

Deadline for application:
September 10, 2019