Community Graduate Programs (Surrey) invites applications for the following position:

Cohort: Graduate Certificate, Imaginative Education (GC IE01)

Course #: EDUC 729-3

Title: Field Study in Imaginative Education (IE): Introduction to Action Research

Description: This course is designed both to integrate previous learning about Imaginative Education (IE) with students’ lived understanding of their educational practice, and to encourage and support students’ ongoing professional growth after the program ends. Students will investigate the philosophy and design of action research for teachers, with a particular focus on inclusive and imaginative approaches to the development of academic understanding and self-reflective learning.

Location: Online, Distance Education

Duration: Jan 1 – April 29, 2018

Qualifications:
- Graduate degree in a related field (PhD preferable);
- Extensive professional experience working in the K-12 school system and at the post-secondary level;
- Extensive professional experience in qualitative research methodologies and/or Action Research;
- Experience in research, teaching, designing, and delivering courses (preferably graduate level) in Imaginative Education;
- Candidates shall provide evidence of teaching ability commensurate with the responsibility of teaching the assigned (3) credit course and of carrying out the duties related to the effective conduct of that course.

Application Process:
Please submit a current curriculum vitae and the contact information of two referees familiar with your qualifications to: Associate Dean of Graduate Programs, c/o Lauren Barke, Manager, edcgpmgr@sfu.ca.

Closing Date: Applications will be received until 4:30pm, October 13, 2017.

For information, please contact Lauren Barke at edcgpmgr@sfu.ca. We thank all applicants for their interest; however, only those selected for interviews will be contacted.
